ABOUT me

I took my first airplane ride as a 2 lb, 1 oz premature baby at just a few hours old. Of course, I don't remember it, but I like to think that life-saving flight is where my love for travel began. As I grew, my parents were able to take me on wonderful adventures that expanded my education, taught me life lessons, and gave me life long memories that we still laugh and reminisce about today. As an adult, I wanted to continue the tradition of travel with my husband and we were able to take some amazing trips (including my first cruise) before our son was born.

In early 2019, I was a full-time respiratory therapist and realized I was not giving my two-year-old the life I dreamed for him. So I left the medical field for the world of travel and the rest, as they say, is history.

At Latitude Travel Planning, we believe in the Og Mandino quote: "The greatest legacy we can leave our children is happy memories". So our passion is helping you make happy memories, experience new cultures, take on new adventures, conquer your fears, and do things you've never done with those you love. We want you to leave the greatest legacy.

INDUSTRY CREDENTIALS

Working with a host agency, I have the unique opportunity to be licensed and accredited with all of the major travel industry regulators. These include CLIA, IATAN, ARC, ARTA, ASTA, The Better Business Bureau, The Travel Institute, and others.

SPECIALTIES

CRUISES

It's my favorite type of vacation and the reason I fell in love with travel. Oceans or rivers. Alaska or the Caribbean. There's nothing quite like being on the water.

FAMILY VACATIONS

Grab the kids, the in-laws, and all the cousins and head off on an adventure. Whether you're a family of 2 or 200, on your honeymoon or celebrating grandma's 80th, we've got you covered.

RAIL

Take the stress out of driving and watch the scenery go by as the train takes you to some of the most wonderful places in the country (and the world!)

WHY USE A TRAVEL ADVISOR?

I'M AN INSIDER

It's all about who you know, and now you know me! I work with the best brands in travel to learn about their company so you can have the vacation of a lifetime...every time!

SAVE TIME & MONEY

Leave the researching to me! While you're getting stuff done, I'll be working to find the best itineraries and details for your dream vacation. And while I'm at it, I'm searching for the best prices and amenities you may not find anywhere else! All you have to do is pack.

SHOP LOCAL

My commission is included in your price. So no matter where you book, you're paying someone. By choosing Latitude Travel Planning, you're working with someone you can meet face to face who will give back to the community you both live in, not someone on the other side of a computer screen.
